My "secret" to success in this category is simple. I open up a lot of slots to allow parents to book times at their convenience.....and am fortunate enough that they seem to like me enough to book them.

I have a son with disabilities and have a goal of having a paid off home for him when I pass away so that he will never have to worry about housing.

Ben Franklin

When I initially started teaching for Outschool in 2020 during covid, I tried to find a class topic that would resonate with many students and be educational but also fun. I chose to teach survival skills and fitness because in today's world parents are increasingly looking for ways to equip their children with practical, life-saving skills while promoting health and well-being.

Spanish the Fun Way Academy: ¡Viva el Español!

Our success in 2024 stemmed from a strategic blend of engaging Global Spanish courses and targeted marketing. By offering interactive, culturally rich classes, we topped enrollments in World Language subjects. Our course format attracted diverse learners, while our engaging educator profile boosted visibility. Consistent communication, personalized attention, and leveraging social media ads were key to becoming a top earner and most-viewed profile. 🌟🇪🇸

Mind over Math Tutoring and Group Classes

Our success stems from our incredible team of passionate and experienced educators who create engaging, tailored lessons that keep learners coming back. By fostering a love for math through innovative teaching, consistent communication with families, and individualized support, we've built lasting relationships. Learners feel seen and supported, driving repeat enrollments and referrals, which have been key to our growth in both group and one-on-one classes.
